THE EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

LUKE 12:13-21, The Parable of the Rich Fool

13 Someone in the crowd said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me." 14 But he said to him, "Friend, who set me to be a judge or arbitrator over you?" 15 And he said to them, "Take care! Be on your guard against all kinds of greed; for one's life does not consist in the abundance of possessions." 16 Then he told them a parable: "The land of a rich man produced abundantly. 17 And he thought to himself, 'What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?' 18 Then he said, 'I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. 19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.' 20 But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?' 21 So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich toward God."

Extension Society 13/14

The Extension Society provides for America's under-resourced mission dioceses. With your support you help build and repair churches, rectories and schools. You help educate America's priests, sisters, deacons and lay leaders and provide crucial resources for parishes and ministries that would otherwise not exist. You help make strategic investments in the Church's future and set financially struggling dioceses on a path toward sustainability. Please be generous!
